WINTER 2018

SERVING

Recently, while listening to the radio, I heard an interesting story about Daryl Davis. The story caught my attention because Davis dared to step out of his comfort zone and be a friend to someone he knew hated him – not because of who he was but simply because of the color of his skin. Daryl Davis, a renowned African American blues musician, took the initiative to reach out to and moreover, befriend members of the Ku Klux Klan. This act of grace has led to more than 200 members leaving the hate group. He has travelled across the country, sometimes with ex- members of the Klu Klux Klan, to give lectures aimed at curbing racism.

Some have criticized Davis and told him to stop wasting his time going into people's houses that don't love him. Matthew 5:15-16 says, "Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven."

Davis goes out of his way to understand why people hate, and little by little, he rips at the ugly fabric of racism. Davis' actions reminds me of Galatians 3:28, "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is no male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus." God is never concerned about a person's skin color or their national origin, because those who are the children of God are citizens of the kingdom, not a kingdom of man.

What Davis is doing is right in line with our Cursillo ethos: Make a friend. Be a friend. Bring a friend to Christ. Davis is aware that it is easy to make a friend that looks like him, or to be a friend as long as they look like him, but have you tried making a friend that doesn't look or think like you? Or, like in Davis' case, hates you without even knowing you? Davis is letting his light shine so that others can see beyond skin color and know the love of Christ Jesus. ULTREYA!

The Gift of Palanca!

Who can forget the overwhelming experience of getting your palanca on Friday afternoon? Whether it was in a paper bag, a plastic bag, a cloth bag, that bag brought gifts of love and prayer from strangers, family, team members, friends.

I made my weekend on MD 6, a long time ago in a very new Cursillo community. I was the only person from our church on the weekend. I knew no one on team. And I had had to carefully plan the time away from my difficult marriage. I knew I wanted to be there, but I was scared and lonely. Then the first night we were forbidden to talk to our roommates or anyone else. And it rained, and rained, and rained.

Friday was a blur. I think I took notes about the talks, but I can't tell you about them today. Then Friday afternoon, all of a sudden Chas were bringing each of us small, cloth bags. And we were told to open them. They were filled with letters and cards, a few from church friends, but almost all of them from strangers – strangers wishing me well, strangers who promised that they were praying for me, and strangers who were fasting for the weekend. I had never received such an outpouring of love. It was just the start of a life-changing weekend.

Bill and Lila Wenner and Jerry and Noreen Brastow took me under their wings. Bill White was a Cha and he made sure I was never alone. Fr. Dick Zumbrunnen ministered to me and prayed with me after Agape because I was desolate knowing that I was returning to an unchanged marriage.

Like most of you, I had experienced the very best of Christian community for a weekend, and it was life-changing. Since MD 6, I have served on several teams, each bringing a new Palanca bag. I have sorted through them often, sharing pencils, pens, gadgets, bracelets with others, and rereading the letters and notes. This past week, I decided it was time to try to tame the clutter in my overflowing office. In one box marked photos, I discovered several Palanca bags, one of which contained a collection of special Palanca.

There in my office, years away from Cursillo weekends, I felt the joy of my first Palanca bag and later bags on team. I had notes from Bill White, stamped with his famous red bow tie; notes from Dick and Tish Weise who have walked my Cursillo walk from the very beginning; notes from my children, my father, my sister, and my beloved husband, Dick; notes from rectors and team members; book marks and cards. There was a poem written by the 12-year old daughter of a fellow team member.

Palanca is the gift that keeps on giving. Take yours out from time to time and reread the notes and letters. Share the tchotchke with others to give them a taste of the joy shared at Cursillo.

In the meantime, give some thought to writing palanca for the next weekend and the weekends that follow. Kind, prayerful words from strangers bring joy, strength, and hope to the new Cursillistas and team on every weekend.

Ultreya,

MARYLAND EPISCOPAL CURSILLO WEEKEND 113

"Our God Reigns!" April 19-22, 2018

How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of those who bring good news, who proclaim peace, who bring good tidings, who proclaim salvation, who say to Zion, "Your God reigns!" <sup>8</sup> Listen! Your watchmen lift up their voices; together they shout for joy. When the LORD returns to Zion, they will see it with their own eyes. <sup>9</sup> Burst into songs of joy together, you ruins of Jerusalem, for the LORD has comforted his people, he has redeemed Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup> The LORD will lay bare his holy arm in the sight of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth will see the salvation of our God. Isaiah 52:7-10 New International Version (NIV)

Your God reigns. My God reigns. Our God reigns. Cursillo is a mountaintop experience that impels us to bring good news, proclaim peace, and proclaim salvation. We are the watchmen who lift our voices in shouts and song. The prophecy speaks to hope in the midst of ruin. The team and candidates of a weekend are energized to seek and serve the environments that they return to after a weekend.

The team is still in formation. I am pleased to say that the Rev. Joanna White, the Rev. Linda Fernandez, and Deacon John Martin will be the Spiritual Advisors. The team still needs a few more people. Please consider sending a team application.

Living Out My Fourth Day

My Cursillo weekend was MD 87 in April 2004. Sometimes it seems ages ago, and sometimes it seems like yesterday. There were many ways it impacted me, but I will focus on two ... near and far.

One of my early memories of the time just after the weekend was that I had a much deeper appreciation of praise music. I found myself buying CDs of praise music, listening to Christian radio stations, raising hands and singing out loud (and usually off key!). More importantly, I discovered that many (possibly most) of the lyrics in praise music come directly from scripture. My Cursillo experience gave me a new way to praise God.

Through some difficult life experiences, especially cancer, I discovered that sometimes people we think of as friends are closely tied to shared space (i.e., work or church), and when we are unable to be in that space, we lose those friends. Remembering the Cursillo saying, "Make a friend, Be a friend, Bring a friend to Christ," I started a greeting card ministry. I developed a list of parishioners who were unable to attend services regularly due to health or other issues, and I sent greeting cards to let them know that they are still in our thoughts and prayers.

The ministry has expanded, and now there is a small group who make cards to send on a regular basis. After an absence of several years, one of the card recipients has recently started attending services again with the help of two others. Success times three ... thanks be to God!

Ultreya!

A Statement from the Episcopal Cursillo Ministry (ECM)

A Statement from the National Episcopal Cursillo, May 2008

Cursillo has always kept its eyes firmly focused on Jesus and on the Mission. One of the principles of the Cursillo movement is that: We focus on Christ and His resurrection power in our lives, transforming us into the people He would have us be. Theological disputes and political issues have no part in our agenda.

The Cursillo Movement is a movement that brings together all people, whether they might consider themselves to have a liberal or conservative Christian philosophy or somewhere in between, for the common good of promoting Jesus Christ and God's Mission. It is Christ-centered and Christ-focused. The Policy of the National Episcopal Cursillo Committee is that it will not be an organization with a political or social agenda. National Episcopal Cursillo is a movement of the Episcopal Church.

We recognize, however, that a number of individuals with connections and interest in the Episcopal Cursillo Movement are no longer affiliated with the Episcopal Church. As a sign of reconciliation, we welcome those still able, as individuals, to be in communion with the local Episcopal Diocesan Bishop and fellow Cursillistas, whether lay or ordained, to participate in the activities of the Cursillo Movement. Furthermore, and always at the Diocesan Bishop's discretion, we encourage an openness to their continued participation and interest in the activities of the Episcopal Cursillo. It should be understood by all that as a part of their participation, they agree to do so fully for the advancement of Cursillo, be supportive of the mission of Episcopal Cursillo, and agree that they will not promote any political agenda.

What is clear is that National Episcopal Cursillo was created to serve the Episcopal Church in the United States, and we are licensed by the Roman Catholic Church to do that. Despite our personal theological and political views, we are focused on knowing Christ and making Him known to others. That is our call and in doing it lays our greatest joy. Ultreya! Ultreya!! Let us get on with the day's apostolic action. Let us all pray for the Church and one another everyday.

Maryland Cursillo is Calling YOU!

What are your gifts? How has God blessed you in ways that you can share with the Maryland Episcopal Cursillo? Many of us have fond memories of singing the lines, "This little light of mine, I'm going to let it shine!" But over time, we may have begun to take our own gifts for granted, often underestimating them or the contributions we can make.

Maryland Cursillo needs and values every one of us and welcomes our participation. Your gifts are needed to make a difference in the lives of so many others. Whether it's sewing, organizing projects, giving witness talks, helping with art projects, preparing food, serving on a leadership team, assisting with the Agape, writing articles, helping coordinate an Ultreya, or just making a joyful noise, YOUR participation is valued and needed!

You'll find a Resource List on page 12 of this issue (or you can download it from MDEpiscopalCursillo.com). Please take a few minutes to read through this information and prayerfully consider where and how your light can shine on the Maryland Cursillo Movement!

Cursillo in Southern Maryland

Hello All - It's time to refresh and renew Cursillo in Southern Maryland!

I am the new Southern Area Representative to the Secretariat and, to the best of my knowledge, there has not been an Ultreya in Calvert County for some time. The Ultreya in Southern Anne Arundel County has been led each month on the fourth Friday evening by Joe Carta at St. James, Lothian. Unfortunately, Joe recently announced his resignation due to the extensive travel obligations of his job. We are all so thankful for Joe's service and his faithful call to "come out and get our Christian batteries recharged" for so many years!

So, this seems like the perfect time to consider revising Ultreya in Southern Maryland. Should we start a regional Ultreya which could move throughout the area? Would you be willing to participate? Would your church be willing to host an Ultreya? Should we meet monthly or possibly quarterly? What day and time ... weekday or weekend? Should we have a pot luck meal or snacks? Are you willing to lead the group or provide music?

Please send me an email sandra\_hall08@comcast.net and let us know your thoughts on these issues. Most importantly, please pray that Cursillo will be revitalized in Southern Maryland as we all continue to "Make a friend. Be a friend. Bring a friend to Christ." Ultreya!

*Tender and compassionate God, you are our steadfast companion in all the times of our lives.
When we rejoice, you rejoice with us; when we are anxious and afraid, you offer us a place where we can find the courage to face the unknown;
when we weep with sadness, you are our comforter.
Help us, O LORD, to believe that you accept us for who we are and who we are not.
Help us as we reach out and serve those around us to be your presence in a troubled world, thru Jesus Christ our LORD and Savior, Amen.*
