SUMMER 2011

Remembering & Rejoicing • 100 Weekends and Counting!

Ultreya! This marvelous charge to “press onward!” is usually used at the conclusion of a talk or event. However, I think it is a most appropriate way for me to begin to share with you all the exciting things that are happening in Maryland Episcopal Cursillo. Thanks be to God and to the faithful community in Maryland, we are indeed pushing ever onward!

As expected, Maryland 100 was a blessed and powerful experience. The candidates were exceptionally well prepared and thus were able to come away empowered, filled up and running over with the love of God. From the testimonies delivered at the Clausura, it was evident that they were truly going forth in the power of the Spirit to change the world. The weekend was followed by a spirited reunion Ultreya at St. Martins In the Field in Severna Park with over 75 people in attendance and a 4th Day Workshop at St. Thomas’, Hancock in early July. Thank you for your prayers and palanca! It makes ALL the difference!

And now on to MD 101! The dates for the weekend are October 27th –October 30th. Rector Marjie Mack, MD 63, of St. James’s Parish, Lothian has called the team, and the meetings begin later this month. The deadline for candidate/sponsor applications is September 27th. We are grateful and thrilled to welcome Bishop Eugene Sutton to Maryland 101 as a spiritual advisor! Although Bishop Sutton has served on many Cursillo teams in other, this will be his first in Maryland.

Maryland 101 will be breaking new ground in other ways as well. After a great deal of prayerful consideration, and in conversation with the Bishop Claggett Center, the Secretariat/Servant Community made the decision to move the weekend’s sleeping accommodations to the cottages on a trial basis. It is hoped that this will allow more people with accessibility issues to access to Cursillo weekends. All other activities will be held in Monocacy and in St. Andrew’s Chapel as has been the custom for the past 9 weekends. The two events most affected by this change are candidate drop off on Thursday evening and Mananitas. As we get closer to the weekend, stay tuned for updates and possible changes in our usual routine for these events. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have concerns or questions regarding this change. Rest assured that the members of Team 101 will make every attempt to meet the needs of candidates and do their best to maintain the spirit and intimacy of Powell Hall in the new setting.

ALSO in OCTOBER! Please come and join in the official celebration of Maryland Episcopal Cursillo’s 100 Weekends - “Remembering and Rejoicing: 100 Weekends and Counting!” We will gather at Claggett on SATURDAY, OCTOBER 1st, beginning with Eucharist at 9 a.m. in St. Andrew’s Chapel. Bishop Sutton will celebrate the Eucharist, and The Rev. Anjel Scarborough, Spiritual Advisor to the Secretariat, will commission the team for MD 101. Following that, we will gather as we did last year in Monocacy for music, discussion, and witness talks. There will also be workshops offered on Spiritual Direction, Music, and on Proclamation - the how-to of making that friend, being that friend and bringing that friend to Christ.

Lunch will be served in the Sugarloaf Hall. The day will also include the election of the new Assistant Lay Director.

Sponsor a CANDIDATE for Weekend 101

October 27 - 30, 2011

So let's not allow ourselves to get fatigued doing good. At the right time we will harvest a good crop if we don't give up, or quit. Right now, therefore, every time we get the chance, let us work for the benefit of all, starting with the people closest to us in the community of faith. Galatians 6:9-10 (The Message)

Cursillistas didn't give up and sent 18 candidates to MD 100! The Fall weekend, MD 101, presents another opportunity to share good things with your fellow Christians, fellow parishioners. So every time you get the chance, pray for direction, and look at the people closest to you in the community of faith. If they haven't been to Cursillo, perhaps the upcoming Fall weekend is just the right opportunity for you to do good by sharing the Cursillo message with them.

Applications are due to me no later than September 27th. Please send the application to 280 Sigma Drive, Harwood, MD 20776. And don't forget to include a sponsor application! Both candidate and sponsor applications are printed in this newsletter and are also available on the MEC website at www.cursillo.ang-md.org

Why a Cursillo Weekend?

The following was submitted by Marjie Mack, MD 63, as a resource to Cursillistas who are frequently asked the question, "Why a Cursillo Weekend?"

You may ask why do I need to go on a Cursillo weekend? I am a Christian. I go to church every week. I read the bible. I have a busy life going on, with work, church activities and family. I just do not have time to take a weekend off to go.

The answer to those who ask is: no matter where you are in your Christian journey, you need this weekend. This weekend is about YOU AND GOD. Think of it as a long-needed vacation with God. This is a time to be away from all the distractions of everyday life. A time for yourself, a time to pray and to unload all the junk that weighs you down. This is a time to learn about the tools that will help you to have a closer relationship with your Lord.

We all know that our lives are filled with activities that distract us from our Lord. We know that family is important. If we are to take care of our families, we must take care of ourselves first. Sometimes we need to take time for ourselves to become healthy both in our bodies and our spirits. The weekend will give you that time to reflect on what is important in your life. You will have time to talk with other men and women about the challenges in their spiritual journeys. Most importantly, you will have the time to pray and listen to your Lord. It may just change your life!

If you want to learn more about Cursillo, please talk with one of the clergy.

MARYLAND EPISCOPAL CURSILLO WEEKEND 101

October 27 - 30, 2011

Who is on your heart to sponsor for MD 101? We ask for your prayers and your candidates, as we have our initial team party toward the end of August and then begin our team meetings in September.

We have a diverse team from many parishes, the Cathedral, and the Diocese. Half of us have either never been on a team before or have only been on one or two teams, and we can't wait to see who God sends us as candidates!

The weekend dates are October 27-30, so see who God puts on your heart to sponsor for MD 101. The deadline for candidate applications is September 27th.

We will be using Monocacy as we have been for awhile, but this weekend we will be sleeping in the cottages instead of Powell Hall, so accommodations and a few other things may be a little different for your candidates than in the past. We think they will like it!

See you on the porch (but which one??) for Las Mananitas and at the chapel for Clausura.

There will be displays, pictures and memorabilia from many of the first 100 weekends for you to peruse, and I am sure more than a few silly contests and door prizes thrown in! Perhaps you will see that table mate, rector or spiritual advisor that made all the difference 10-20-30 years ago! Most importantly, it will be an opportunity to gather as a community to give thanks and continue the conversation with God and with one another. Please come to the “family” reunion! A free-will offering will be taken to cover the costs of the day.

As noted above, we will be electing a new Assistant Lay Director to replace Nancy Horkan who will be moving in to the Lay Director position, effective Oct. 1st. At this time, we have one person who has graciously stepped forward to offer himself for consideration. If you would like to throw your hat into the ring or would like to recommend someone for the position, please contact Earl Buffalo, the chair of the nominating committee, or contact any member of the Secretariat.

I am in awe of how God has moved and blessed us in the past 12 months. I am thankful for the way the Spirit is moving among us and encouraging us in times that could be less than encouraging. I am reminded that God's purpose in Cursillo has been and continues to be the equipping of ordinary believers to be partners in His extraordinary work of bringing all the world into His saving embrace. Let us keep encouraging one another, telling our stories of redemption, and moving forward to even greater depths of mercy and love. Ultreya!!!

Prayer for the Gift of the Holy Spirit

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of Your faithful and kindle in us the fire of Your Love.

Send forth Your Spirit and we shall be created, and You shall renew the face of the earth.

O God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit did instruct the hearts of the faithful,

Grant that by the same Holy Spirit, we may be truly wise and ever enjoy His consolations;

Through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

The purpose of Cursillo is to help those in the Church understand their individual callings to be Christian leaders.

What Are You Worth?

*I will give them an undivided heart and put a new spirit in them;
I will remove from them their heart of stone and give them a heart of flesh.
Then they will follow my decrees and be careful to keep my laws.
They will be my people, and I will be their God.
(Ezekiel 11:19-20)*

Somehow I always approach the summer season thinking that my life will slow down and have a more relaxed pace. Perhaps this belief comes from reflecting on my childhood when summer vacations were full of afternoons at a neighbor's pool, riding bikes, playing with friends and family trips to the beach or to the redwoods to camp. But if I'm honest, there's a little revisionist history going on as summer vacations always seemed to go by too quickly and I was back in school before I knew it. As I get older, summers seem to go by even faster.

We live in a culture which places high value on being busy and productive. Phrases like "Idle hands are the devil's tools" and "time is money" are part and parcel of our western, and especially our American, culture. We can be led to believe that our value comes from what we do and what we produce. But there's a problem with this view - it isn't how God sees us and it does not have ultimate worth.

As a hospice chaplain, I work with people at the end of life who have had most of their abilities either diminished or removed by the disease process which will one day take their life. One of the most common frustrations my patients face is the sense that they have no worth because they can no longer do the things which gave their lives meaning: the woman who says, "I always made Sunday dinner for our whole family but I'm stuck in this bed and can't do that anymore" or the man who was the "go to" guy in the family for repairing cars who cannot leave the house anymore because it makes him too short of breath. They have fallen into the trap of believing that what they do is who they are.

This is one of the world's Big Lies I have the privilege to expose in my work and one which we all need to expose as ministers of the Gospel. What we do will pass but who we really are can never die - we are children of God and our ultimate worth is found within the context of knowing and trusting this truth. It is the relationships we build in this life which will last. Our relationship with God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, and empowered in the Spirit is the one thing which cannot be stripped away, and it is the foundational relationship which informs how we relate to others - our family, friends, neighbors and yes, even our enemies and those who wish us harm.

Three times in the prophecy of Ezekiel, God promises a restoration of God's people through the giving of a new heart and a new spirit. Two of the three times this appears, there is a reference to a "heart of stone" being removed and a "heart of flesh" being given. The ancient Israelites understood the heart to be the center of thinking and belief and a "heart of stone" referred to one who was closed to God and others while a "heart of flesh" referred to one who was open to God and others. Many of us had the experience of having our "heart of stone" changed through the gift of Cursillo and yet, over time, we discover other places where our hearts are hardened.

One of the places I struggle with is how activities can creep into my schedule, and I find myself succumbing to the trap of "busyness." Bishop Stacy Sauls once called this tendency the "seduction of usefulness." I suspect this is a struggle for all of us who are Christian leaders. It is a place where our hearts can become hardened and we are unable to be open and present to our most important relationships in meaningful ways.

As Christians, we proclaim a countercultural message. In a world of hardened hearts who believe that human value is centered in doing, we proclaim the truth of our value as centered on being: being a child of God, saved by grace through Christ, and filled with the Spirit. May we set aside the world's "busyness," still our souls and remember this truth so we may claim it not only for ourselves but share it joyfully with a world who needs to hear good news.

MEC Secretariat Spiritual Director

Stewardship Campaign Continues

This summer the Secretariat renewed its Stewardship Campaign, and wrote letters urging Maryland Cursillistas, to the extent that they are able, to support the mission and programs of MEC with a financial contribution. To date $2,500 has been raised through the Campaign, but Maryland Cursillo could use additional support to sustain its activities, and we invite all Cursillistas, especially those who may not yet have contributed, to consider a donation to MEC. Contributions may be mailed to:

MARYLAND EPISCOPAL CURSILLO, c/o Church of the Ascension, 23 North Court Street, Westminster MD 21157

Thank you for your faithful support, not simply financially, but through prayers, through Weekend activities and support, and through the year-round activities of the community.

— Dick Mitchell, MD 47
MEC Treasurer

Elections at the Diocesan Ultreya • October 1st

Elections for the new Assistant Lay Director will be held during the Annual Diocesan Ultreya on October 1st at The Bishop Claggett Center. Below is a brief biography from Bill Miller who has offered himself for consideration as Assistant Lay Director. In the absence of any additional nominations from the floor on the day, the community will affirm Bill's service in this leadership position.

Candidate for Assistant Lay Director – Bill Miller, MD 52

I have been a Cursillista for approximately 18 years, having made my Cursillo weekend in 1993 - MD 52, Faith Table! I served on my first team in 1994; I have been on ten teams serving as Cha, Table Leader, Assistant Rector, and Rector of MD 80. I have given Leadership training as part of the servant community.

I am a member of Middleham and St Peter's Parish. I am a Lay Eucharistic Minister and serve on the Outreach Committee and Stewardship Committees. I recently led a team on an Appalachian Mission trip and look forward to many more. I am also an EFM mentor and a Chaplain at Calvert Memorial Hospital.

Cursillo has given me a sense of belonging to a larger Community and an appreciation that we are all called to be Christ's Hands in Action. I've learned to look daily for "God Sightings" both in our environment and in others. I have come to count on Christ in all that I do, and now realize that Christ is also counting on me.

— Ultreya, Bill Miller, MD 52

NATIONAL EPISCOPAL CURSILLO

GROWING
CHRIST-CENTERED
LEADERS

A Statement from the National Episcopal Cursillo, May 2008

Cursillo has always kept its eyes firmly focused on Jesus and on the Mission. One of the principles of the Cursillo movement is that:

We focus on Christ and His resurrection power in our lives, transforming us into the people He would have us be. Theological disputes and political issues have no part in our agenda.

The Cursillo Movement is a movement that brings together all people, whether they might consider themselves to have a liberal or conservative Christian philosophy or somewhere in between, for the common good of promoting Jesus Christ and God's Mission. It is Christ-centered and Christ-focused. The Policy of the National Episcopal Cursillo Committee is that it will not be an organization with a political or social agenda. National Episcopal Cursillo is a movement of the Episcopal Church.

We recognize, however, that a number of individuals with connections and interest in the Episcopal Cursillo Movement are no longer affiliated with the Episcopal Church. As a sign of reconciliation, we welcome those still able, as individuals, to be in communion with the local Episcopal Diocesan Bishop and fellow Cursillistas, whether lay or ordained, to participate in the activities of the Cursillo Movement. Furthermore, and always at the Diocesan Bishop's discretion, we encourage an openness to their continued participation and interest in the activities of the Episcopal Cursillo. It should be understood by all that as a part of their participation, they agree to do so fully for the advancement of Cursillo, be supportive of the mission of Episcopal Cursillo, and agree that they will not promote any political agenda.

What is clear is that National Episcopal Cursillo was created to serve the Episcopal Church in the United States, and we are licensed by the Roman Catholic Church to do that. Despite our personal theological and political views, we are focused on knowing Christ and making Him known to others. That is our call and in doing it lays our greatest joy. Ultreya! Ultreya!! Let us get on with the day's apostolic action. Let us all pray for the Church and one another everyday.
